Dear Kathy,

It is ridiculous that Futurewise has anything to say about Clark County plans. They are a leftist central planning organization that usurps the will of the people. They want light rail, tolls, and everyone living in high density like Portland and Seattle with heavy traffic jams. They want to tax every move we make. Clark County can do better. We need a third and fourth bridge across the Columbia and alternative 4 for rural areas. Futurewise is at war with the automobile and rural property rights. Governor Inslee would not have a brain without Futurewise. I guess the new norm is that Clark County is usurped by Seattle and Portland using Futurewise lawsuits to override the will of the people? Why are they allowed to do this?

Thank you for the information. I will be sure to pass it on to my friends.

Sincerely,
Keith Mathison
