

ENFORCEMENT COMMANDER

JOB PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

This is an advanced administrative and professional position with responsibility for managing, planning, directing, and coordinating the activities of staff responsible for the various programs and divisions within the Sheriff's Office. Although the work is primarily planning, administration and coordination, it also requires technical decisions related to Sheriff's policy, ordinances, allocation of resources and divisional budgeting.

CLASSIFICATION DISTINCTIONS

The Enforcement Commander is the management-level in the enforcement classification series, and is distinguished from Sergeants by administrative responsibilities. Commanders have supervisory responsibilities over Enforcement Sergeants and Deputy Sheriffs and other clerical/technical positions within the Sheriff's Office.

KEY OR TYPICAL TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Plans, directs, and coordinates through subordinate supervisory staff, the Sheriff's Office work plan; meets with management staff to identify and resolve problems; assigns projects and programmatic areas of responsibility; reviews and evaluates work methods and procedures.
- Recommend and assist in the implementation of goals and objectives; establish schedules and methods for providing law enforcement services; implement policies and procedures.
- May respond to major crime and accident scenes; supervise investigations, interviews and interrogations in the field; personally conducts highly complex or sensitive investigations.
- Participate in budget preparation and justification; prepare cost estimates and recommendations; and oversee monitoring of expenditures.
- Respond to citizen complaints and requests for information; prepare press releases and confer with the media in matters related to assigned activities.
- Coordinate police activities with other branches/departments/divisions, and with outside agencies.
- Oversee and coordinate tactical deployments and patrol assignments; monitor work products and operational efficiency; prepare written and oral analyses of patrol activities; coordinate and supervise special activities such as search and rescue operations and boat patrol, SWAT, special operations.

- Oversee law enforcement activities with the criminal investigation unit; prepare evaluations of major investigations for upper administrative staff; review major investigations conducted by patrol units for possible assistance from or assignment to criminal investigation unit.
- Seek new, innovative, and cost-effective crime prevention programs and activities.
- Develop and implement training programs on various phases of law enforcement issues.
- Coordinate and implement the development of new systems and equipment.
- Coordinate and implement interagency agreements and operation/procedures manuals.
- Oversee the requisition of supplies and equipment.
- Perform related duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

- United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident required.
- Four (4) years of enforcement experience including two (2) years of supervisory responsibility, at the Sergeant's level, with the Clark County Sheriff's Department.
- An Associate of Arts Degree, or equivalent experience in criminal justice, police science, public administration, or related field.
- Possession of a Mid-Management Certificate from the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission; or the ability to make application within the first year of promotion.
- Possession of a First Level supervision for Law Enforcement Certificate from the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission is desirable.

Knowledge of: Methods and techniques of law enforcement and principles and practices of law enforcement program development and administration; federal, state, and local laws, codes and regulations; organization, operations, and policies of the Clark County Sheriff's Office; principles and techniques of Community Oriented Policing; personnel and financial management; budget preparation; court rules, legal procedures and statutory requirements for processing offenders, crimes and sentences; legal and human rights of offenders. Enforcement Commander: knowledge of methods and techniques of law enforcement including patrol, traffic control, crime prevention, investigation, apprehension, civil process and arrest. Enforcement Commander: knowledge of modern principles of enforcement.

Ability to: Recommend and implement goals and objectives with emphasis on Community Oriented Policing; identify and analyze problems and develop creative solutions; effectively administer a variety of law enforcement activities; lead, direct and evaluate subordinates; respond to requests and inquiries from other agencies and the public; develop and maintain effective working relationships at all levels within and outside the organization; communicate effectively, both orally and in writing.

WORK ENVIRONMENT & PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

Work is performed in a variety of settings, including precincts, patrol car, indoor or outdoor commercial and residential settings. The majority of time is spent in an office environment. Work may involve exposure to varying and extreme weather conditions when visiting crime scenes, etc. Commander may, during emergencies, be at risks of physical hazard from various sources including violent people, a variety of weapons, noise, chemicals, bodily secretions, sharp objects, traffic, drugs and drug paraphernalia and/or crime scenes in general. Incumbents must be able to wear protective equipment as required by the department. Additionally, incumbents are expected to manage face-to-face interactions and confrontations with any, hostile, depressed and/or otherwise emotionally distraught suspects/inmates. Commanders may work overtime, holidays and weekends, and are required to respond to emergencies.

Essential tasks include: use of various equipment associated with enforcement environments in addition to equipment such as a personal computer, telephone, copiers, printers, and other applicable technical equipment. In addition to sitting, walking, standing, bending, carrying of light items, an incumbent must be able to run, subdue, and restrain individuals within and out of the jail facility. Incumbents are required to drive a vehicle to off-site training facilities, crime scenes, seminars, academies, or other job-related locations.

Office Use: 4/11/2000
Revised: 7/13/2000, 9/1/2017, 1/18/2022 (Civil Service Only)